INSIGHTS

STATE OF BASIC EDUCATION

(Anambra State)

INSIGHTS

13,539

Anambra State ranks 14th in terms of enrollment in Nigeria. The State should ensure increased enrollment through appropriate funding and policy direction aimed at promoting quality education. Number of drop out (13,539) will likely reduce if appropriate measures aimed at facilitating quality education is mainstreamed into the State's education policy.

3,989

Anambra State ranked the least in the number of qualified Primary School Teachers in the Nigeria. This is a wake up call to Government of Anambra State to ensure recruitment of qualified Teachers in Primary Schools as Primary education serves as foundation for every pupil and this can make or mar the future of Anambra State. Leadership of Anambra need to ensure 3,989 unqualified Primary School Teachers in the State takes necessary certification to make them qualified.

954

Anambra State also need to do more in recruiting qualified JSS Teachers as the State ranks 19th in Nigeria. The State need to ensure 954 unqualified JSS Teachers goes through the requirements to make them qualified.

34th

Anambra State Government need renovate the bad classrooms in the State. It is commendable that the State ranks 34th in terms of bad Primary Classrooms in Nigeria. The State need to be more deliberate in renovating JSS Classrooms as the State ranks 19th in Nigeria.

3.9%

The State need to allocate more resources to Education. It's a way of demonstrating how Intentional they are in ensuring quality education (SDG 4). 3.9% allocated to Education in 2021 is grossly inadequate to achieve quality education as it falls short of 15% minimum Education allocation recommended by UNESCO.
